

The New York Times

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 2007

HERALD SQUARE

DE GUSTIBUS COOKING SCHOOL since 1980 on 8 at MACY'S

54 Seasons of De Gustibus classes and, like the market, each season brings something new for the food lover. Every night, celebrity chefs bring their talents to our kitchen. Their respect and love for ingredients translate to recipes we can't wait to try at home. And we have fun—our chefs teach, entertain, and prepare delicious food for us to sample, complemented by exquisite wines. Who needs to go anywhere else when you can experience the WHO'S WHO AND WHAT'S WHAT IN THE FOOD WORLD?

To register, or for more information, call us at 212-439-1714, e-mail: grtcoks@aol.com, or visit www.degustibusinc.com.

Arlene Feltman Sailhac, Owner/Director

TOP CHEF

See why he earned the title!

Single class $90

Tuesday, September 18, 2007 5:30-8:00 pm

HAROLD DIETERLE, winner of Bravo's inaugural "Top Chef" TV show and now co-owner of Perilla in Greenwich Village, prepares an Indian Summer menu, sharing the secrets to his success.